Public Housing Issues and HUD's Budget

- On February 12, 2018, the Trump Administration announced the proposed 2019 Budget for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), a $41.24 billion spending plan that continues or expands support for vulnerable populations including those experiencing homelessness, the elderly and persons living with disabilities. The President's 2019 Budget represents a commitment to fiscal restraint, with a modest one percent increase in discretionary funding over last year's request.
