ABOUT THE LEARNING COLLABORATIVE

This learning collaborative from NCHPH and NNCC will guide health center staff through practical steps to help build value and return on investment in their current health center and housing authority partnerships. The learning collaborative will consist of four modules that discuss strategies, case studies, and promising practices to increase the impact of partnership activities, ultimately improving the health and social outcomes for residents of public housing. The modules will discuss how to optimize the health center workforce and resources, evaluate existing and developing partnerships, and measure and improve their impact.

ABOUT THE FACULTY

This learning collaborative is presented by the National Nurse-Led Care Consortium (NNCC) and the National Center for Health in Public Housing (NCHPH).

National Nurse-Led Care Consortium

NNCC is a national leader supporting and advocating on behalf of nurse leaders. We are a nonprofit member-supported organization, and provide a wide range of services to educate and support nurses on the frontlines of health care. NNCC is an affiliate of Public Health Management Corporation (PHMC).

TIMELINE AND COMMITMENT

Participants are expected to attend all four 60-minute live Zoom learning sessions held throughout the fall of 2021. Participants will complete a post- questionnaire to help NNCC and NCHPH evaluate the learning collaborative. If obtaining CMEs/CNEs, participants will also complete a brief post-test after each learning session.

ZOOM

All four sessions in this learning collaborative will meet over Zoom. You may download the free Zoom client for PC or Mac at <https://zoom.us/>. Click the orange “sign up free” button for instructions. If your computer doesn’t have a built-in video camera, a simple USB webcam, such as a Logitech HD PRO Webcam C920, is all you need. Zoom apps are also available for iOS and android.

SHARED RESOURCES FOLDER in Google Drive

For this course we will be utilizing a Google Drive folder to share resources between sessions. Recordings of each session will be uploaded to the folder as well as other useful information and materials. To view the folder, please go to the link below. You do not need to be logged into Google to view this folder.
